Our difference

No rigid itineraries and standard group tours. We craft a personalized Amalfi Coast getaway especially for your group of friends or family. Save time, research and worry: just relax and share local charm, beauty and experiences like no other.

The Amalfi Coast can be a difficult destination to navigate, and local knowledge makes all the difference. Whether you're looking for the lively atmosphere of bustling towns or the serene charm of hilltop villages, choosing the right location is essential.

Organizing experiences across various towns and managing the logistics of traveling along the Amalfi Coast requires insider expertise and connections to ensure a seamless experience. We can bring it all together for you.

Ciao! Meet your local experts: The two Mariangela's

At Amalfi Coast Escapes, our team is led by two experts who combine local knowledge and personalized service to create an extraordinary group holiday.

Mariangela Virtue, raised in Australia by her Italian family, grew up immersed in Italy's rich traditions, cuisine, and culture. With decades of client service experience and a deep connection to Southern Italy, she is an avid traveler who feels most at home on the Amalfi Coast.

Mariangela Cinque, born and raised in Positano, has over 15 years of experience in tourism, managing a charter boat business, a B&B, and farm-to-table experiences. She knows every hidden corner and delight the region has to offer, and serves as your friendly local guide on the Amalfi Coast.

Together, they recommend only the people, places, and experiences they personally know and love. From the moment you arrive, Mariangela Cinque will be your on-the-ground concierge, greeting you in person and ensuring every detail of your stay is seamless. Whether it's securing a table at a popular restaurant, arranging transport, or suggesting a hidden beach, she'll make every moment memorable, allowing you to immerse yourself in the beauty of the Amalfi Coast.
